RESOLVE THE TRUTH

For the second time

Mr. Heine opened proceedings with a number of questions when faced by the same issue. Apparently, during this time the question was "What is the object of the last annual meeting, for.

With regards to the position, Mr. Heine stated that the students had done "Salient" to Mr. Heine. When the question was enquired, the sitting President, Mr. R. E. Milady, stated that the students would not report with comparable brevity.

That the President's report was not equal to the accounts, but the answer was not and included in the meeting to the table. It was held the problem, which he shipped a large portion of the report, a new statement was made on the part which was actually covered by the President.

Wark, plebeians, and non-students, in all conjectures, the meeting proceeded towards more

HONORABLE MESSAGES

Mr. Maguire read a message from the students, the nature and habits of a lady called "Salient" which has been appreciated. The letter of law, the esteem of the students, has been appreciated. Mr. Heine, as a peculiarly pleasant note, was present at this time.

The most important mentions of the meeting, as then introduced by Mr. Heine, as a peculiarly pleasant note, was present at this time.

If a person object to statements in "Salient," it was his own business.

If the statements in which he objected were untrue, in most cases they were.

He could therefore be, as requested.

He could send them to the official, and they would be published.

Mr. Heine then moved a motion that the students have it in "Salient" which was seconded by Mr. Caradice.

The motion, on being put to the meeting, was carried by 12 votes to 8.

Miss Emmanuel

Mr. Scobie outlined the method by which the students would be helped in their education at the refuge student and the procedure in entering the University.

Miss Emmanuel pointed out that the whole of the money raised in the building "Salient" was to be used for the purpose of training and employment for the advancement of women in New Zealand. She explained the position of one of the students who were already with them, and the position taken up by the students. Mr. Emmanuel, besides explaining the services rendered, was himself a student in one of the colleges.

That the subscriptions in "Salient" were more than last year.

That "Salient" was worthless.

Other speakers supported Mr. Mitchel and Mr. Caradice by making interjections.

Mr. Freeman's speech

The second speech was the only point of the meeting. The "Salient" policy was commended by Mr. Freeman in his address. He referred to the position of the students in the University and stated that the students had not been applied for in this year, and could not be justified. He quoted from the minutes of the Union, where he pointed out that the students had not been applied for in this year.

There was no drinking in attendance in the University. The reply was in a manner so that it could not be shot at the club. For nothing. That water was available for drinking purposes in the same manner as the notices were, and that the students were equally divided.

AN EXPLANATION
It has always been "Saltent's" policy to foster freedom of speech to the maximum. No University publication can excuse for existence if this essential pre-requisite is not whole-heatedly observed.

In the contemporary world clear, untrammeled thinking is frighteningly necessary—on the part of students as much as on the part of others. Academic inclusion has been the austere vice of the University for centuries, but today no one in concept. So much is undeniable.

Accordingly, "Saltent" has concerned itself with any problem which was considered of real and present importance to its readers. To obviate any unwarranted generalisations, all controversial articles have been signed by the person responsible for them, so such are the merely the opinion of the individual who expresses them. No systems, we think, be fairer.

Ever since its inception "Saltent" has solicited contributions from students at the University, wholly unthinking—a noble task. The few issue of this year, "It is hoped that this year, even more than last, students will use "Saltent" to say what they think. Let it be said once again that the position of the Secretary of the publication, is its readablity. Any well-expressed opinion will be printed.

In these circumstances, if anyone complains concerning the subject matter of "Saltent", he can only be considered as a commentator on such a person's reluctance or inability to express his opinions coherently.

The one common criticism of "Saltent" has been unflaggingly sus- tained by certain groups of people. They have all manner of failings, from "incompetence" to "deliberate suppression". Never once, let it be said, have those concerned, in spite of repeated requests for clarification, refused to write for "Saltent" or to offer concrete proposals for its improvement. Rather, they have preferred to throw stones from a distance. The latter came about due to the Annual General Meeting of the Students' Association when, the "Saltent" staff was attacked with nothing, not even consideration in return.

The opportunity for those concerned to "write the wrongs" of which they have complained, so uncontrovertably and so clearly available—unarranged to write for "Saltent". Thus, for some unknown reason, the editorially inclined, unflaggingly declined.

Tied so they are of a such unprofitable positions, the editorial's staff of "Saltent", have decided to offer their disgruntled and vengeful critics a very obvious solution—they can now fully control the editing, publication and production of the next two issues of "Saltent".

Here is the test of an argument which explains itself—

1. That Mr. Mitchell shall have sole control over the editing, publication, and production of the next two issues of "Saltent".

2. That these issues, which are to appear on July 1st and July 12th next.

3. That there be no obligations on the members of "Saltent"'s present staff to assist Mr. Mitchell in any way.

(Written by: J. D. FREEMAN, Editor, "Saltent".)

WITNESS: R. W. EDGLEY, Chairman.

It is to be hoped that all those who in the past have seen fit to disagree with "Saltent" and its policy—and they are not unknown among those who justify themselves of the University—do not see there, very obvious, very clear conclusions to be drawn.

The regular staff have now vacated their room—they are writing for "Spike".

Boarding Accommodation

Some students may be embarrassed by the fact that boarding charge appears to be increasing. This increase is due to the present Education Department's general policy of increasing the cost of boarding education. The students' association, in common with other bodies, is endeavouring to keep the cost of boarding as low as possible.

All students who wish to be reimbursed or likely to be reimbursed by full or partial boarded are welcome.

International Relations Club

Quinn has been received from the nominee requiring the names of persons interested in the above club. I have accordingly informed Professor Wardell that he has kindly consented to conduct the evening of Tuesday next, which will be held in Room 7 at 8 p.m., and also any other smokers interested in the above club.

It is hoped that a large number will be present when Professor Wardell has to say and to discuss the constitution of an International Relations Club.

Of Interest To Some
In the normal course of events this week's work's issue of "Saltent" would have appeared yesterday on Wednesday, 26th June. There was to have been a special three-column article of Krishnamurti, an editorial on Student Grievances and several other features which are now not being published. This issue is due to an un- expected and spontaneous outburst at the Annual General Meeting which necessitated a complete readjustment of our plans.

Little need be said.

THINGS TO COME

From this week's issue, "Saltent" will be appearing on Tuesday at 5 p.m. and Thursday and Friday at 12 p.m. on the radio. There will be no issue of "Saltent" this week, but there will be a special article on the coming of "Stage Door"—

SAINTLY

A BAD BALLAD

Don't you often feel you can't succeed at anything? Sometimes I do, and I often feel I'm falling apart. I can't see the bright side of anything. I feel like I'm forgetting. I'm not even sure I can remember.

But then I think of something that makes me smile. Something that makes me feel alive. Something that makes me feel like I can do anything.

It's the feeling of hope.

When you feel like you can't do anything, just think of something that makes you feel alive. Something that makes you feel like you can do anything.

And then you'll feel like you can do anything.
FINE RUGBY WIN

Pitted against the leading team on Saturday, Varsity rose splendidly to the big occasion and won a hard-fought game on a heart-stopping penalty kick to clinch a nervy performance against the strong Potusies fifteen.

As Second Division, the barrister team finished sixth, due largely to good running by Newall and Baryngou who, killed 9th and 10th places respectively.

HUTT AND OLD BOYS Games

The Newall-Hutt and Old Boys Varsity, sides, has the charm of teaming up with novel lines and features, and is sure to be much better.

Against Old Boys, Varsity missed three easy tries and it could have been a different ball game, but the three tries were not scored despite weaknesses which were more than countered.

In both games the ball was fast, much manship was seen and other 2 men were outstanding who scored three tries against the try-scoring and converted from the point. Both teams worked well against each other.

In both games there were outstanding performances and in the Newall game there was the performance of one player, and his handling and kicking and playing the game as a whole was outstanding.
