PRESIDENT

D. B. HORSLEY

D. B. Horsley is a law and arts student, majoring in business administration and a member of the student government. He is the secretary of the University Honors Society and is a member of the Student Senate. Horsley was born in 1925 and is a resident of Los Angeles. His hobbies include sports and music. He is active in student affairs and has been involved in various campus activities. His future plans include a career in business.

MEN'S VICE-PRESIDENT

DOUGALD MACDONALD

Dougald MacDonald is a third-year student in commerce who has been active in student affairs. He is a member of the University Honors Society and has been involved in various campus activities. His future plans include a career in business.

TREASURER

A. W. COOK

A. W. Cook is a law student who has been active in student affairs. He is a member of the University Honors Society and has been involved in various campus activities. His future plans include a career in business.

WOMEN'S VICE-PRESIDENT

NANCY PEARCE

Nancy Pearce is a law student who has been active in student affairs. She is a member of the University Honors Society and has been involved in various campus activities. Her future plans include a career in business.

SECRETARY

FRANK CURTIN

Frank Curtin is a law student who has been active in student affairs. He is a member of the University Honors Society and has been involved in various campus activities. His future plans include a career in business.

MEN'S COMMITTEE

TIM BAGHELLE

Tim Baghelle is a law student who has been active in student affairs. He is a member of the University Honors Society and has been involved in various campus activities. His future plans include a career in business.

WOMEN'S COMMITTEE

DANIELLE THOMPSON

Danielle Thompson is a law student who has been active in student affairs. She is a member of the University Honors Society and has been involved in various campus activities. Her future plans include a career in business.

NOMINEE

A. W. COOK

A. W. Cook is a law student who has been active in student affairs. He is a member of the University Honors Society and has been involved in various campus activities. His future plans include a career in business.

CONRAD BOLLINGER

Conrad Bollinger is a law student who has been active in student affairs. He is a member of the University Honors Society and has been involved in various campus activities. His future plans include a career in business.

PAUL COTTON

Paul Cotton is a law student who has been active in student affairs. He is a member of the University Honors Society and has been involved in various campus activities. His future plans include a career in business.

J. D. DALGETY

J. D. Dalgety is a law student who has been active in student affairs. He is a member of the University Honors Society and has been involved in various campus activities. His future plans include a career in business.
nature by being at a place where the atmosphere of the place and the presence of man should be able to be expressed and transmitted from one to another. The same is true of books. They will ^______= will be the same as his name by the name of the University. However, he is not a man of words only, but a man of action. He is a professor of law, student-cooperation and, in general, a man of action.

In the text by B. Lampen-Smith, J. D. Milburn, and K. Phillips, they discuss the role of the Drama Club and the importance of student involvement in the community. They write:

"The Drama Club is a vital part of the community. It is a place where students can express themselves and develop their skills. It is also a place where they can learn about teamwork and communication. The Drama Club is a place where students can learn about themselves and the world around them."

In the text by P. Piper, E. Piper, and B. Phillips, they discuss the role of the Jazz Band and the importance of student involvement in the community. They write:

"The Jazz Band is a vital part of the community. It is a place where students can express themselves and develop their skills. It is also a place where they can learn about teamwork and communication. The Jazz Band is a place where students can learn about themselves and the world around them."

In the text by John Patterson, they discuss the role of the Music Club and the importance of student involvement in the community. They write:

"The Music Club is a vital part of the community. It is a place where students can express themselves and develop their skills. It is also a place where they can learn about teamwork and communication. The Music Club is a place where students can learn about themselves and the world around them."

In the text by L. Robinson, they discuss the role of the Science Club and the importance of student involvement in the community. They write:

"The Science Club is a vital part of the community. It is a place where students can express themselves and develop their skills. It is also a place where they can learn about teamwork and communication. The Science Club is a place where students can learn about themselves and the world around them."

In the text by B. Perry, they discuss the role of the Art Club and the importance of student involvement in the community. They write:

"The Art Club is a vital part of the community. It is a place where students can express themselves and develop their skills. It is also a place where they can learn about teamwork and communication. The Art Club is a place where students can learn about themselves and the world around them."

In the text by Michael Pick, they discuss the role of the Business Club and the importance of student involvement in the community. They write:

"The Business Club is a vital part of the community. It is a place where students can express themselves and develop their skills. It is also a place where they can learn about teamwork and communication. The Business Club is a place where students can learn about themselves and the world around them."

In the text by David Walsh, they discuss the role of the Sports Club and the importance of student involvement in the community. They write:

"The Sports Club is a vital part of the community. It is a place where students can express themselves and develop their skills. It is also a place where they can learn about teamwork and communication. The Sports Club is a place where students can learn about themselves and the world around them."