Going to School
Today is Timothy’s birthday. He is five.
Mother and Susan and Timothy are going to school.

“Here is Susan’s school,” said Timothy.
Timothy said to the teacher,
“I am Timothy,
and I am five today.”
The teacher said,
“Hullo, Timothy. I am Miss Davis. Come and meet the boys and girls. Come and meet Tai and Rangi.”
Miss Davis said,
“Tai and Rangi, this is Timothy.
Look after Timothy today.”
Tai said, “Hullo, Timothy.
Look at the airport.”
“I will help,” said Timothy.
Timothy is helping Tai and Rangi.

“Here is a Friendship for the airport,” he said.
“I like the airport, and I like the plane, too,” said Miss Davis.
“‘This is a Friendship,’” said Timothy.
Timothy and Susan are going home for lunch. They meet Father.
‘Dad,’ shouted Timothy, ‘look at the Friendship!’
Ready to Read

★ Early in the Morning ★ Grandma Comes to Stay ★ The Fire Engine ★
★ Where is Timothy ★ Going to School ★ Playtime ★
★ Christmas Shopping ★ Saturday Morning ★ Painting the Shed ★
★ A Country School ★ The Pet Show ★ At the Camp ★

drawings in this book are by Dora Ridall

SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS BRANCH, DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, NEW ZEALAND

R. E. OWEN, GOVERNMENT PRINTER, WELLINGTON