The Pet Show
This is the day
the pets come to school.
A lamb comes to school.
A cat comes to school.
The mothers and fathers
come to school too.
They come in cars and trucks.
A pig comes to school.
A calf comes to school.
Mary comes with the calf.
Penny comes with the pig.
William the goat will not come.

“Get up, William,” said Michael.

“Get up, William,” said the boys and girls. William will not get up.
Mr McGregor comes to school.
He is the judge.
The children meet Mr McGregor.
William the goat meets Mr McGregor.
“Who is ready?” said Mr Pitama.
“My pig is ready,” said Penny.
“My calf is ready too,” said Mary.
“William the goat is not ready,” said Michael.
The judge is ready.
The teacher is ready.
The boys and girls are ready.
The pets are ready.
Where is William the goat?
“Mary’s calf is first. The red ribbon is for Mary’s calf,” said Mr McGregor.
“Oh, thank you, Mr McGregor,” said Mary.
Penny shouted, “Look at William with the red ribbon!”
Away went William.
The boys and girls went after the goat.
The teacher and the judge went after the goat.
“Come here, William!” they shouted.
Ready to Read

☆ Early in the Morning ☆ Grandma Comes to Stay ☆ The Fire Engine ☆
☆ Where is Timothy ☆ Going to School ☆ Playtime ☆
☆ Christmas Shopping ☆ Saturday Morning ☆ Painting the Shed ☆
☆ A Country School ☆ The Pet Show ☆ At the Camp ☆

drawings in this book are by Paul Olds

SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS BRANCH, DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, NEW ZEALAND

A. R. SHEARER, GOVERNMENT PRINTER, WELLINGTON, NEW ZEALAND – 1970